To THE PUBLIC.—From the 1st day of July, 1851, the postage on the Daily American Telegraph, Washington eity, D. C., will be, per quarter in advance, as follows:—Fifty miles or under, 25 cents; over fifty and not over three hundred, 50 cents; over three hundred and not exceeding one thousand, 75 cents, &c. Any person wishing to be served for three months after the above date need only pay his quarter in a small letter—postage paid, of course; or five dollars for a year. The Telegraph is independent in politics, polite, moral, agreeable, and familiar, prompt in furnishing the news, and a terror to all eviloners.

Editors of weekly and other papers desirous to exchange with us can pay the difference in the prices of subscription by giving a few insertions to the above notice.

[Washingron, May 27, 1851.

STRIPES AND FLOGGING .- It is consistent in the advocates of one of these stimulants to naval heroism to defend the other also. That the regular dram will ever beget the love of more, and provoke the cats, is certain; and that the man who will ship, subject to the degradation of the cats, will yearn for his grog, is very probable. Let neither be expected, and better men will be secured-if not without better fare and better pay, give them to them. A navy of one thousand men, who do not love grog and would not brook flogging, will prove of more worth than thrice their number of sots and servile dogs. And if the discipline of the navy cannot be preserved by its present officers, under the new order of things, let the old fogies resign: we have men enough to command our vessels who need no such auxiliaries as rum and the cat-o'-nine-tails.

PROFITS OF AGRICULTURE. - Small well-tilled markets, are often exceedingly profitable. We have frequently been astonished at the revenue derived from a single kind of fruit or vegetable. A New Jersey paper remarks of the strawberry trade of that State, that on one night of last week 132 wagons full of the fruit passed over the Hoboken ferry, principally from the vicinity of Hackensack, Paterson, New Durham, and Bergen. One gardener near Bergen is said to have cleared $1.500 this season. A large profit is reported to be derived also from the manufacture of baskets in which the fruit is conveyed to market, although they are sold at the low rate of one cent each! In view of such statements as this, how lamentable it is to look upon the miserable, self-indulgent, lazy beings, white and black, American and foreign, who lounge about our cities amid shiftless dishonesty.

A MISSING LETTER .- A letter was dropped into the Washington city post office some weeks ago, having money in it, and directed to Mt. Israel; but the writer was soon informed that it had not gone to Mt. Israel. He therefore applied to the depredation bureau" of the Post Office Department, and obtained the aid of Mr. WALLER. This gentleman at once found that no letter had been mailed for Mt. Israel on the day named. It therefore looked like the story was a fiction. or the letter had been abstracted from our city post office. Mr. Waller bade the parties interested wait a few days. They did so, and he produced the letter. It had been mailed to Mt. Pleasant, and placed in the pigeon-holes at that office without the postmaster's observing that it should have gone to another mountain! The workings of the department are systematic, and the experienced men in its service can discover and correct an error with wonderful precision. It is but just, however, to say that in our city post office they are of rare occurrence.

AN INTERESTING WORK .- The life of Major Lemuel Purnell Montgomery, of the 39th regiment U. S. army, who fell at the battle of the Horseshoe, on the 27th March, 1814, will shortly be published by Baker & Scribner, New York. The work will be written by the Rev. T. H. Headley; and, in addition to the life and exgeneral history of the events of the war of 1812, as well as the principal events in the career of the prominent officers of that war. The life of Mexican war, will also be appended.

The brother of this brave officer, (Major C. P. Montgomery,) who is the general agent for the work, called upon us yesterday with the prospectus, and among the subscribers to it we notice the names of many of our eminent states-men and officers in the army, some of whom seem to have existed in his time that are exhave furnished historical and biographical facts to aid in its compilation.

The pistols used by Major Montgomery during the war have recently been presented by his brother to the National Institution.

We understand that Mr. Varden, Curator at agent for the work in this city.

THE PRESIDENT'S RETURN! - Captain Mc-Causland, of the steamboat Mt. Vernon, offers inducements to any of our citizens desiring an excursion on the Potomac, such as are rarely presented. We doubt not many, especially of the personal friends of the President of the United States, will avail themselves of the advantages of this opportunity.

THE FOURTH OF JULY.-In referring to the proclamation of Major General WALTER JONES. we would take occasion to suggest that a procession of societies and trades would be appropriate to the day and the occasion.

A NEW BRIDGE is to be constructed over the Tiber, near the intersection of New Jersey avenue and D street, a few feet from the new carhouse of the railroad company. The span is to be one hundred and seventy-two feet. Workmen have commenced excavating for the foundation.

CRIMINAL COURT .- The trial of Henry Buete for forgery and attempted fraud was commenced yesterday, and is still in progress. At one o'clock to-day the testimony for the United States was closed.

THE INTERNATIONAL .- Taylor & Maury, the agents for this city, have presented to us the July number of this instructive and entertaining monthly. The contents are rich and varied, and the Xylographic pictures beautiful.

The Illinois Episcopal Convention met lately at Quincy. Bishop Chase was prevented from being present by illness, and the Rev. Charles Dresser, of Springfield, was elected President of the Convention. No assistant Bishop was elected.

AUCTION SALES .- We desire to invite the public attention to several public sales about to

The first, on Saturday morning, on H between Sixth and Seventh streets, by C. W. BOTELER, is of Household Furniture of good quality.

The second, on Saturday evening, at six o'clock, is a sale of unusual interest. A large number of valuable CITY Lors are to be offered on Fourand-a-Half street, by A. GREEN, Auctioneer. The third, on Monday, at ten o'clock a. m., by Over & McGuire, of Household Furniture. For particulars the reader is referred to the dvertisements.

SANDFORD'S NEW OBLEANS OPERA TROUPE !t is a little remarkable that every concert given by this troupe in Washington was attended by an overflowing audience until they offered a benefit to the National Monument Association, when their hearers were sparse, and their net receipts but twenty-nine dollars and a levy. This is comical, but true! Let us see what can be done on Monday evening for the benefit of our two Orphan Asylums. Something far better than this, we are sure. Our people must have forgot themselves last evening.

To-night and to-morrow night our Georgetown friends will enjoy the exquisite music of this SAD AFFLICTION .- The late news from California falls heavily upon the Harrisburg community. Of the deaths at the great conflagration in the city of San Francisco, in May last, they lost two. MAXWELL NUSBAUM, of the firm of Nusbaum & BROTHERS, a merchant of excellent standing, and a clerk by the name of ROSENTHAL in their employ, perished in the noble and praiseworthy effort of endeavoring to farms, from which there is easy access to good preserve the goods and property of the firm of TAFFE & M'CAHILL. The sad intelligence, says the Union, has created wide-spread grief in our midst. Mr. Nusbaum leaves a wife and two very interesting little children to mourn this irreparable loss.

> H. ECKARDT & BROTHER are showing the world what close attention, industry, skill and enterprise can do in the Confectionery Line. They are not only improving and expanding their facilities at the old stand, corner of 9th and F streets, but have opened a new and splendid concern on the Avenue, between 12th and 13th. Whoever partakes of their cooling luxury pronounces it superlatively good, and hails the Messrs. Eckardt as national benefactors!

> FINE SHEEP .- Mr. John W. Moore, of Jeferson county, Va., recently slaughtered a fine lot of sheep. Buck No. 1, 110 days old, 121 lbs. Buck No. 2, 100 days old, 106 lbs. Ewe No. 1, 100 days old, 101 lbs. THE SEA-SERPENT .- The present story is that it has not only been seen, but caught, and that Captain Burr pulled its head off in trying to get it aboard, and salted said head for preservation. We shall salt down the tale he has given of it.

JOHN TYLER, ir., has in the Pennsylvanian of Wednesday a very clever and sensible review of the subject of "City Parks and Squares."

Mrs. Collison, 7th above H street, can fit you out beautifully for the great holiday. She has ribbons and trimmings of all kinds, such as young folks love to decorate themselves with

> And since we have been led to speak of Women's Rights Conventions, and a new female costume, we will present our readers with the Apostle Paul's views on these questions. In his first epistle, or let-ter to Timothy, he instructs him what he shall teach, and how he shall govern as a minister or bishop in the gospel church; and among other instructions he gives the following:

GEORGIA UNION NOMINATIONS. - We learn from the Savannah papers that the Hon. Robert Toombs has been nominated as the Union candidate for Congress from the Eighth District of Georgia; Chas. H. Hopkins, esq., for the First, and the Hon. Charles Murphy for the Fourth District.

THE EXHIBITION and distribution of premims of the ACADEMY OF THE VISITATION, corner of F and 9th streets, will take place to-morrow; the particulars of which, with the list of premiums, we shall publish in full in the Telegraph of to-morrow afternoon.

BLOOMER COSTUME .- Quite a number of young ladies of Stockbridge, Mass., have adopted the Bloomer costume, and are represented to look pretty and becoming in their new attire. Considerable excitement was created on their first appearance in the streets.

SCHOOL EXHIBITION .- The annual exhibition of the pupils of St. Vincent Orphan Asylum was held at the Asylum to-day in the presence of the several pastors of the Roman Catholic churches, and many friends and patrons of this valuable institution. The children acquitted hemselves very creditably. Their specimens of needle-work, writing, &c., were much admired. We could not avoid remarking the genteel appearance and excellent deportment of these fatherless little girls, who by the unrequited kindness of the good Sisters of Charity, have been rescued from the paths of destruction, and provided with so many com-

SALE OF CITY PROPERTY .- A. Green, auctioneer, (by J. C. Green,) yesterday sold at public auction a lot and two-story frame house on Eighth street, between G and H. The lot fronts thirty-two feet three inches on Eighth street, and is about ninety-five feet deep. Mr. Isaac Clarke was the purchaser-price $1,100.

MRS. MOFFETT (next to our office) has every thing the ladies can desire in the way of dress, and a fair assortment of little conveniences for gentlemen, such as gloves, cravats, and all those

CITY CANAL.—The improvements of the eastern section are progressing finely, and will soon be completed.

WONDERFUL DESPATCH .- On Tuesday the ews of the Europa's arrival was telegraphed from New York to New Orleans, and an answer eccived in one hour and three quarters. The distance there and back is three thousand six nundred miles. It left New York at twenty minutes past two o'clock, and reached New Or leans precisely at two, apparently twenty minutes before it started!

GREAT WILL CASE _Slaves Liberated _ There has been for some time before the courts at Richmond, Va., what was known as the Ragland will case, and the verdict of the jury, just made, offers a singular commentary upon the repeated declaration that the colored man cannot meet with justice in the South. The Richmond Dispatch says:

"The will liberated 80 or 90 negroes in the midst of one of the largest slaveholding com-munities in the world, and devoted to their use the entire property of the testator. It was contested with all the energy which could be brought to bear upon it. The trial was conducted with the utmost circumspection: witnesses were examined and cross-examined; the whole testimony was reduced to writing, so that the jury could read it all for themselves (as we learn that they did a great portion of t;) and then the case was argued with all the ability that able and ingenious counsel were capable of exercising. After all—fully under-standing the merits of the case—a jury com-posed almost entirely of slaveholders—every man of them having strong sympathies, at least, with slaveholders—decided in favor of the will."

CAPT. STEPHEN SMITH, a soldier of the Revolution, died in Northford, on the 23d inst., a the advanced age of one hundred years and six weeks. At the close of the one hundredth year of his age, many of his friends met with him on which occasion a sermon was preached, and religious services performed, and the day closed by the party partaking supper with the venerable old gentleman. The incidents recounted by him and his early associates from this city, who were then for the last time met together will be long remembered by those of another generation who were present. Mr. Smith was many years engaged in commercial business, and sailed from this port in the palmy days of the Shipmans and Shermans. His life was marked for strict integrity, energy, and perse-verance—and sincerely devoted to his family, THE NEW COSTUME.-The New York Sun is his friends, his country, and the cause of Christ, hands refusing to go to work. Boston, June 26 .- The train from Springfield to Albany ran off the track last night in consequence of the axles of the engine breaking. The second-class passenger car was upset and several passengers badly injured. J. Knowlton had both thighs broken.

Boston, June 26-3 p. m.—The sloop-of-war Portsmouth, Com. Gregory, arrived to-day in thirty-six days from Port Praya. The dysen-tery prevailed on board during the passage, and two deaths had occurred. The crew are much debilitated by the climate of the African Coast. The Portsmouth left at Port Praya the U. S. ship Germantown, which was to sail for the Coast in a few days. The Dale had sailed for the Island of Java on the 6th of May to demand satisfaction from the natives for an outrage perpetrated upon Americans a year ago. The Perry was cruising among the Cape de Verde islands. The Portsmouth brought home the first and second mates and seamen of a Hamburg ship, wrecked on the island of Mayo.

HAVANA, June 22.-Exchanges are lower Freights high. Vessels for Europe scarce. A large proportion of the crop is unshipped. A moderate business is doing in sugar, and prices are maintained at the previous decline. A further reduction was however anticipated. Sales of molasses have been made at 14 reals, but holders generally ask 2 reals.

The transactions in coffee are very small. The political news is unimportant.

KEY WEST, June 16 .- Arrived, the captain and crew of the brig Charles, of New York, bound from New Orleans to Sagua, who were saved by the ship W. Thompson. The brig was abandoned in lat. 24 deg. 20 m., lon. 88 deg. 30 m. She was sinking when left. Sailed on the 19th the Mystic for New York.

FEMALE REPORTERS .- The Boston Bee says: There are two young ladies in this city who regularly attend the morning services at the Melodeon, for the purpose of taking phonographic notes of Theodore Parker's sermons. The remainder of the day is employed in writing out the sermons. By this means they have out the sermons. By this means they have faithful reports of every sermon preached by Mr. Parker since his settlement at the Melo

The Major General of the District Militia, in compli ance with intimations from authority to which his unqualified respect, both official and personal, is due, desire all the citizen-soldiers within the limits of his command to take notice that the ceremony of laying the corner-stone of the edifice to be erected in the Capitol square for the reception of Congress is appointed for the next ensu ing Fourth of July, and that they are expected to turn out in full force, to take their due share in the solemn ties of the day, in which the President of the United States and the Heads of the Executive Departments are
